

Berkeley Workshop on Environmental Politics: Schedule

Green Governance Project: Institute of International Studies, UC Berkeley
Luce Project on Green Governance: Berkeley Workshop on Environmental Politics

Colloquium Schedule for 2008-2009

Colloquium meetings are held on Fridays, 3:00 - 5:30 p.m. in Room 223 Moses

Hall, UC Berkeley.

September 26, 2008

Toxic Wars and Bodies Exposed: A Political Ecology of Health Model for Studying

Gulf War Syndrome.

Janice Harper, Department of Anthropology, University of Tennessee

October 24, 2008

Producing Nature, Consuming Culture: The Marketing of Coffee from Papua New Guinea

Paige West, Department of Anthropology, Barnard College

November 14, 2008

Bad Weather: On Planetary Crisis

Joseph Masco, Department of Anthropology, University of Chicago

December 10, 2008

The Politics of Organic Farming: Populists, Evangelicals, and the Agriculture of the Middle.

Laura Sayre, Postdoctoral Fellow, Program in Agrarian Studies, Yale University

February 20, 2009

Snowglobalism and Terror Kitsch: Flurry and Freeze in Capitalist Cosmography

Esther Leslie, School of English and Humanities, University of London

March 13, 2009

Cat Fights on the Rio & Diabolic Caminos in the Desert: The Nature of Boundary Enforcement in the United States-Mexico Borderlands

Juanita Sundberg, University of British Columbia

April 17, 2009

Opening the Green Box: How Organic Became the Standard for Alternative Agriculture in Southeast Asia

Peter Vandergeest, Department of Sociology, York University

May 1, 2009

Bundles, Stacks and Value Tent Polygons: Bringing Ecosystems to Market

Morgan Robertson, Department of Geography, University of Kentucky

This colloquium was initiated as part of the Berkeley Workshop on Environmental Politics, an interdisciplinary program which also sponsored working groups, conferences, and residential fellowships. Colloquium meetings are entirely devoted to the discussion of papers that are made available in advance of the session. The workshop is funded by the Luce Foundation and the Hewlett Foundation. For more information on current projects, see the Green Governance Project.

Header design by L. Carper, artwork by R. Reen; 1999

© Copyright 2006, Regents of the University of California